CELEBRATION OF INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY - 21.02.2021

February 21st is the International Mother Language Day. To commemorate this special day, two online programs titled 'Bangla Bhasa Uchcharito Hole' were organized by the Cultural Committee and Department of Bengali, Durgapur Government College. First of all, the Principal of our college, Hon'ble Dr. Debnath Palit, presented his valuable speech before us on the significance of this day. Then the students, teachers and the non-teaching staffs, all expressed their emotion for the Bengali language, through their speeches, dances, songs and pictures. All participants video graphed their performance from home for the pandemic situation. Those video contents were uploaded on the YouTube channel in the form of a collage at the initiative of the Cultural Committee. The entire program was conducted by Dr. Maitreyi Banerjee, Dr. Shreya Ray and Dr. Snigdha Chandra.

At the initiative of the Bengali Department, a short writing on the Bengali language was organized. Among all, 3 selected articles related to International Mother Language Day were published. Besides these, there was a drama presentation by the students of Bengali Department on this occasion. The drama was titled as 'Barnamala, Amar Dukhini Barnamala' which was directed by Sandip Samanta and Starring Pritha Mukherjee and Ditsa Saha. The event was organized to spread the message that many other languages need to be learned in order to communicate with the world or to enrich the knowledge base, but not in disrespect of one's mother tongue.
