

A note on the One day state level seminar on “Ethical Analysis: A Comparison between Indian and Western Philosophical thought” on 10.12.2019 to commemorate 50 years (1969-2019) of Durgapur Government College.

The Department of Philosophy, Durgapur Government College organized a One day State-Level Seminar on “Ethical Analysis: A Comparison between Indian and Western Philosophical thought” on 10.12.2019 to commemorate 50 years of (1969-2019) Durgapur Government College.

The Department invited two speakers one from the Department of Philosophy, Kazi Nazrul University, Asansol (Prof. Sk. Abdul Halim) and one from Department of Philosophy Maharani Kasiswari College, Kolkata (Prof. Mandira Ghosh). They delivered talks on “Yoga Darsana Nitikatha” and “Applied Ethics: A Comparative Study between Ayurveda and Western Biomedical Ethics” respectively.

The theme of the seminar was to elucidate the very method or procedure of ethical analysis which is the pertinent aspect of philosophy. It mainly focused on introducing amongst students the ability of ethical analysis and thinking on any perspective whatsoever. Ethics being an all pervasive aspect of philosophy, the seminar aspired in projecting the lineage of such thoughts which prevailed from early Indian Philosophical system (like Yoga Darsana, Caraka and Sushrusa) to the present day world (like practical ethics, bio-medical ethics, etc.) Hence the organizers of the Department of Philosophy as a whole thought of arranging a One day state-level Seminar which would encompass such areas of Ethical thinking in order to justify the role of ethical analysis.
