

Report of the Study Tour conducted by Department of History

Date of the Tour: 19th February 2022

Place: Indian Museum Kolkata

Participants: 26 students (12 students from Sem III and 14 students from Sem VI batch) and 3 faculty members.

Objective: ‘Archaeology and Museum Making in Colonial India’ is a SEC paper, taught in the 3rd semester History Hons. This paper included a visit to a museum or a heritage site or historical place. This is a project based learning. For this paper and also for a student of history, a clear concept of museum is needed. Museum is an inalienable part of history. For this reason the department organized study tour.

Short Description: This is the 11th Departmental Study Tour. On this tour we visited Archaeological Gallery, Bharhut Gallery, Coin Gallery, Egypt Gallery, Gandhara Gallery, Geological Gallery, Minor Arts Gallery, Paintings Gallery, and Zoological Gallery. Besides, Jagriti Hazra Chakraborty, a young professional of the Education Department, Indian Museum gave an on-site lecture about the making of a museum and the art of conservation. Her lecture is very useful to the students and the teachers also. For her demonstration the tour became more fruitful.
