THEME OF THE EVENT: The theme of the event was to celebrate the 162nd Birth Anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore; the legendary figure internationally. We dedicate the day to the Bengali Poet Rabindranath Tagore; the great Poet, Artist, Novelist, Writer and Philosopher. The event was scheduled and divided into two sections. The first section witnessed the cultural program while the second half of the event a Quiz Competition was arranged. The Quiz competition was named as; MOGOJASTRO 2023. The quiz competition was on Rabindranath Tagore. The theme was to promote a general consciousness and awareness on the multifarious facets of Rabindranath Tagore's life and works. The recapitulation and remembrance of a great personality on a special day as his Birth Anniversary is definitely educational and inspirational. Students of Durgapur Government College along with the Cultural Committee left no stone unturned to attain such aim.

OBJECTIVE OF THEEVENT: -- The Cultural program held in the first half of the event was to objectify the beauty of Rabindranath's Poems, songs depicted through dance forms gracefully. The committee members paid great attention on the actual versions of Rabindra Sangeet to be included. The Committee had the objective of making it picturesque to the students that how our language, culture and tradition made its way to the world forum by a poet who belonged us. How Bengal produced the most celebrated personality who is cherished even after 164 years. The Committee specifically made provisions and inserted questions in the quiz competition which dealt with the contribution of Rabindranath Tagore in the attaining independence, his fearless nature, his breath-taking Philosophy and his eloquence. Finally offcourse making all history come to live again within a small segment of time.

Cultural Committee Report on

REPORT ON BASANTO UTSAV ORGANIZED BY CULTURAL SUB-COMMITTEE, DURGAPUR GOVERNMENT COLLEGE; DATED: 03.03.2023

Every year, the Cultural Committee of Durgapur Government College, Jawaharlal Nehru Avenue, Durgapur, Paschim Bardhaman, West Bengal, India – 713214, strives to celebrate the cultural diversity through varieties of competitions, events, activities, programmes. The Committee offers a variety of possibilities for students to unwind and develop their skills and talents. The Cultural Committee's Teacher and Student Coordinators put forth a lot of effort to plan, guide, and arrange different intra and intercollegiate events

Objective:

The Basanto Utsav festival marks the beginning of spring. As part of its annual schedule, the Cultural Sub-committee observes this day of colour and celebration every year. This event is also known as Holi and Dol Utsav. Although the festival of colours is known by several names in various parts of India, the Cultural Sub-committee insists that it would stay with the original name of Basanto Utsav. Durgapur Government College was packed with the subject of love, life, and music and all of the faculty members, non-teaching staffs and students participated in the festival of spring.

Details of the event:

- 1. The event started at 12:00 (IST) on 03rd March 2023 in the premises of Durgapur Government College and was inaugurated by Dr. Debnath Palit Principal Durgapur Government College by lighting the lamp
- 2. The celebration started through an inaugural song and dance by faculty members
- 3. One of our 1st semester student from economics department Ms. Jayshree Mukherjee hosted the whole event and made an eloquent summarization about the overall programme
- 4. A magnificent programme was conducted through dance, singing, recitation and declamation. The Bsanta Utsav aimed to raise awareness of the environment and the seasonal transition. Durgapur Government College and the Cultural Sub-committee planned to celebrate intercommunal harmony, tolerance by conveying a message of integrity. Basanta Utsav is a celebration that respects the environment. All of the hues used were natural or organic. The committee's mission was to foster peace and love in everyone's life
- 5. A small award ceremony was also conducted to give away the awards to the winners of Alpona (Road Art) competition of 2022 and 2023

Cultural Committee Report on INTERDEPARTMENTAL ALPONA COMPETITION(ROAD ART) ORGANIZED BY CULTURAL SUB-COMMITTEE, DURGAPUR GOVERNMENT COLLEGE; DATED: 28.02.2023

Every year, the Cultural Committee of Durgapur Government College, Jawaharlal Nehru Avenue, Durgapur, Paschim Bardhaman, West Bengal, India – 713214, strives to celebrate the cultural diversity through varieties of competitions, events, activities, programmes. The Committee offers a variety of possibilities for students to unwind and develop their skills and talents. The Cultural Committee's Teacher and Student Coordinators put forth a lot of effort to plan, guide, and arrange different intra and intercollegiate events

Objective:

The event's focus was on students from Durgapur Government College showcasing their talent live on stage. The Durgapur Government College's Cultural Subcommittee has seen first-hand how brilliantly the students perform and how enthusiastic they are about participating in or attending any cultural event. The committee sought to demonstrate through a live competition that this was also the case in a situation where students' work, particularly that of Bengali culture, would be shown in public. Additionally, it demonstrated how well- versed in the art of alpona-giving the pupils were. Alpona is a floor art (which can also be done on walls) that is typically done by women during celebratory occasions. They display virtually a whole art exhibition comprised of vibrant patterns, geometric shapes, or occasionally even human forms of idols. Additionally, students from several departments at Durgapur Government College presented instances with the same composure and proficiency. Thus, Bengali art in particular was the focus of the theme, which was essentially Indian art and culture.

Details of the event:

- 1. The event started at 12:00 (IST) on 28th February 2023 in the premises of Durgapur Government College and was inaugurated by Dr. Debnath Palit Principal Durgapur Government College
- 2. A total of 15 departments, 2 units of our collage participated in the programme and prior to the competition all the departments were allotted a specified place by mean of lottery
- 3. The Cultural Section has thought of doing this in an innovative way. The committee thought that the use of color, measurement and mindfulness could be successfully realized through art exhibitions, and that the best idea would be to draw alpona along the path that students walk through each day after entering the college
- 4. Dr. Debnath Palit Principal Durgapur Government College has invited four distinguished judges two from Michael Madhusudan Memorial College, Durgapur and two from Durgapur Women's College, Durgapur for fair judgement
- 5. Newspaper like Bartaman covered the event and published an article

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY
(ANTORJATIK MATRI BHASA DIWAS) ORGANIZED
BY CULTURAL SUB-COMMITTEE, DURGAPUR
GOVERNMENT COLLEGE; DATED: 21.02.2023

Every year, the Cultural Committee of Durgapur Government College, Jawaharlal Nehru Avenue, Durgapur, Paschim Bardhaman, West Bengal, India – 713214, strives to celebrate the cultural diversity through varieties of competitions, events, activities, programmes. The Committee offers a variety of possibilities for students to unwind and develop their skills and talents. The Cultural Committee's Teacher and Student Coordinators put forth a lot of effort to plan, guide, and arrange different intra and intercollegiate events

Objective:

INTERNATIONAL MOTHER LANGUAGE DAY (ANTORJATIK MATRI BHASA DIWAS) was observed on 21.2.2023, as is customary for the Cultural sub-committee. The program's focus was undoubtedly on linguistic, cultural, and multilingual harmony. The main goal of cultural subcommittee is to celebrate each and every mother tongue of the world under the title "Bhalo Bhasa-er Nir". The protest staged on February 21, 1952, by a number of courageous martyrs who gave their lives to preserve the honour and dignity of the mother tongue is what gives Bangladesh its remarkable past and gives rise to such celebrations. We can all agree that when information is presented to us in our mother tongue, we understand and comprehend it better. Even thoughts that have grown in our mother tongue can be expressed verbally and in writing. In other words, one's mother tongue or mother language is just as familiar, close, and lovable as one's mother. In 1999, the UNESCO recognised the significance of Mother Language Day (Matri Bhasa Diwas) on February 21

Details of the event:

- The event started at 12:00 (IST) on 21st February 2023 in Bidhan Prekha Griha (Auditorium) by lightning the diyas by honourable Principal Durgapur Government College Dr. Debnath Palit along with an inaugural song sung by our student Mr. Akash Das, Department of Commerce.
- 2. Dr. Dola Chakraborty and one of our 1st semester student from economics department Ms. Jayshree Mukherjee hosted the whole event and made an eloquent summarization about the overall programme.
- Our honourable Principal Durgapur Government College Dr. Debnath Palit gave an inspiring speech regarding importance of language that inspired the students and also faculty members.
- 4. A magnificent programme was conducted through dance, singing, recitation and declamation that ignite the flame of love and respect toward our language. Students recognized in today's world that tolerance and peaceful co-existence is possible only if we respect other's sentiments and feelings. Since Language is the most apt means of expressing one's solidarity it must be respected and used with care and caution
- 5. Finally the event was concluded with the vote of thanks by Mr. Manas Kundu with beautiful and persuasive words.

যুগ্ম-আহ্বায়ক সাংস্কৃতিক উপসমিতি দুর্গাপুর সরকারি মহাবিদ্যালয় THEME OF THE EVENT: The theme of the Pre-Puja celebration was designed on the idea namely that the festive mode of Durga Puja be celebrated keeping the cocoon of freedom, independence and equal opportunity for all unaffected. Celebration should not end or start without a socialistic attitude towards society. Freedom to celebrate holding equal aspiration to fulfill life should be the aim. Students of Durgapur Government College aspire to break the shackles of diversification discomfort which in a way makes a marginalized move. The theme thus upholds the sense of unity, grace, festivity and attainment with the specific mode of upliftment and fraternity. The music of such free thinking, free willing and free sharing must fill the air which would bestow equal blessings for all. Since Durga Puja is the celebration of the triumph of good over evil, the whole country seeks blessings for the well being of the known and the unknown; of friends and enemies; of man and nature alike. We, Indians do not distinguish and do not wish to keep any ill feelings when it comes to a mega community celebration. Our Culture does not allow us to celebrate in isolation. This itself shows that ethnically we are a clan which have from time in memorial witnessed a close feeling of kinship sharing a common motherland. Specifically so when it comes to the celebration of Devi Durga; all Indians from villagers to city dwellers, from professionals to entrepreneurs, from rich to poor join hands. Students of Durgapur Government College along with the Cultural Sub-Committee essentially bask in the same feeling.

OBJECTIVE OF THE EVENT: The objective of the event was to spread awareness amongst students of Durgapur Government College that they are in no way less capable of attaining the one equal status as the student of any institution of National level. They are equally capable of holding the sentiment and enact accordingly which would bring about a future glory for the nation. It is not only Celebration that they have in mind but it is Celebration with a purpose. The purpose and Philosophy behind are to have a we feeling of embracing the cultural unification of India. The objective is to spread the message that in this chaotic world just before the mega celebration of woman power that the Indian Culture celebrates which transcends the cage of religious fervor and fanatism; we stand as one class of ever evolving youth who are the forerunner of the future.
