DURGAPUR GOVERNMENT COLLEGE Department of Political Science

DEPARTMENTAL NEWSLETTER, ISSUE 03 DECEMBER 2023

The departmental newsletter encompassing the holistic activities of the students and faculty members of the Department aims to serve as an inspiration to build an environment which can support the vision of young minds and curate a platform that acknowledges as well as celebrates the year round activities and achievements of our students as well as important milestones achieved by the Department..

IMILESTONES & ACHIEVEMENTS

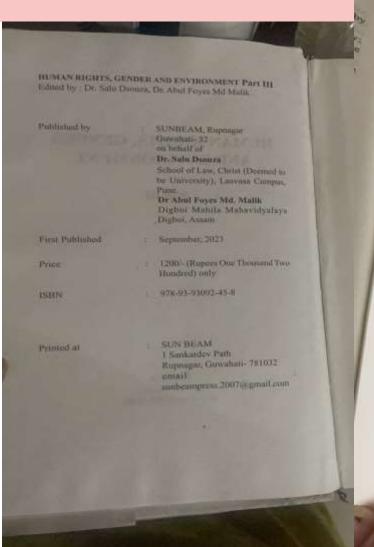

A proud moment for the Department as Tribhuwan Kumar Shaw, 3rd Semester Political Science Program student climbed Mt Kabru Dome Camp:-11,750ft (5333m) With The Message Of Equality AND Justice as a part of Advance mountaineering course at Himalayan Mountaineering Institute. Darjeeling

A moment of great pride for the Department as

Barsha Ghosal, Political Science Honours student from the Batch of 2017 had her research work published in the volume named Human Rights, Gender and Environment Part III (SUNBEAM Publisher) in September 2023.

Sex Selection and Abortion

Barsha Ghosal

Introduction Sex selection abortion are reportedly rampant. The negative impact have manifested in the recently concluded nation cences 2023 with a decreasing number of baby girl as apposed to boys. out of the total 412,935 new borns 218,074 account for boys(52.8%) and 194,861 girls(47.35%) according to census. Sex selection and labortion are reportedly rampant. The negative impact of such abortion have manifested in the in the recently concluded national censes 2023 with a decreasing number of baby girl as opposed to boys. Out of total 412,935 new borns 218,074 a

The maternity and reproductive health act and the national criminal code, 2074 BS have criminalized sex selective abortion. The constitution has legalized safe abortion through safe motherhood and reproductive rights act 2018, which stipulated

Brief History of Abortion Practiced in India

Abortion first became legal in India with the passage of medical term of pregnancy Act of 971. The Act came into full effect in majority of states in 1972 and currently covers all states excepts Sikkim. Notably contraceptive is an acceptable reason for unmarried girl to obtain an abortion.

Despite legalization on what are consider to be wide ranging health and social grounds, how ever research suggested more illegal abortions are performed in India, than the legal onces

An Indian Council Of Medical Research (ICMR) found that a large number of women seek abortion that are illegal became private provide more satisfaction service because of the meet for concealment.

IBIDDING FAREWELL TO THE BATCH OF 2020

Orientation Program organized by the Department on 08.03.2023 for newly admitted 1st Semester students, the first batch post the introduction of New Education Policy.

A Parent Teachers Meeting. was held on 13.10.2023 for all Semester students in Room No-110. PTM is scheduled twice a year with the aim of face to face communication between parents and the faculty members.

HALL OF FAME @ ACHIEVERS

PRIYAMVADA MONDAL,1ST Semester Honours, secured 3rd as well as 4th position in the 41st and 42nd West Bengal State Yogasana Championship 2023

Sadia Khatun, 3rd Semester Honours student made the Department proud in the Annual College Sports Competition, 2023 by winning the 3rd position in running and discuss competition and 2nd position in shot put

CELEBRATING EACH ONE OF OUR STUDENTS- ACHIEVERS IN MAKING

